Six-year-old Charlotte feels sad and angry after her mom dies in a car accident. Her dad is sad, too, and often seems too busy to notice Charlotte. But after she feels sad, mad, and scared, she and her dad visit a therapist who helps.

Because her mom's death causes six-year-old Charlotte to feel sad, mad, and scared, she and her dad visit a therapist who helps.

A school counselor helps them find ways to talk and to build hope for their future.
