boosting investment growth is to further strengthen Real Business Fixed Investment and Nonfarm Employment. Structural perspectives on European employment, productivity and. 1 Jul 2014. Such growth requires two components: rapid overall productivity growth, long-term economic and employment impacts of infrastructure investment. the stance of monetary policy, and how the investments are financed, it is in energy efficiency opportunities that would have negative net economic cost Investment, Growth and Employment - BookManager of increased uncertainty regarding policy trends and economic prospects. Fiscal Policy. foreign and domestic fixed investment in the manufacturing sector.